FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE

Which Is It To Be?

Has your perspective concerning education kept pace with the times or are you still thinking in prewar terms? Sooner or later you will need to face this question.

Men and women in large numbers are returning to the schools and colleges from the armed forces. They see education and life differently to what they did in prewar days. Even those just entering our secondary schools think in different terms. The old ways of thinking no longer suffice.

As a teacher YOU are in a key position. Therefore, you owe it to yourself as well as to your pupils to lead the way rather than to lag behind. You are the inspiration as well as the one who enlightens.

Think carefully whether you have fully enlightened yourself concerning your teaching subject. GRADUATE STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE, your own Alma Mater, will help you solve this problem. You may elect courses related to your interests in one or several of the 30 departments offering them.

FORESTRY: A Fortieth Anniversary

IN 1906 the University of Maine conferred the degree of Bachelor of Science in Forestry on four seniors: Howard Lincoln Churchill, Lincoln Crowell, Walter Oscar Frost, and David Nathan Rogers. These four pioneer woodsmen, the first of a long line of Forestry graduates, set a worthy example for future classes.

Two members of the first Forestry class, Crowell and Rogers, went on to further study at Yale University, receiving Master's degrees the following year. Subsequently Lincoln Crowell became associated with the state of Massachusetts, serving the Cape Cod district and being one of the leaders in establishing the state forest there. He was for more than 20 years fire warden of the district and for several years worked closely with the CCC program developing the state forest. He was killed in a motor accident in 1938 while in the midst of these activities. David Rogers found his career with the U. S. Forest Service, most of it in the forests of the far west. Last summer he retired from his position as director of the Plumas National Forest with a record of 35 years of service. He is now living in Quincy, Calif., where he carries on a consulting forest practice.

Both Howard Churchill and Walter "Jack" Frost found careers in the Northeast. Mr. Churchill was appointed in 1910 to the management of the great woodlands of the Finch, Pruyn Co., in Glens Falls, N. Y., and held that position almost to the time of his death in 1943. He was regarded as one of the outstanding pioneers in forest management and his methods were often used as models in woods management by other paper and lumber companies. Mr. Frost, today a plant pathologist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is located in Augusta with the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. Mr. Frost is perhaps best remembered of the quartet from his college days, having been an outstanding baseball pitcher and captain of the varsity team in his senior year.

In this fortieth anniversary year of the graduation of the first of many Maine "woodsmen," it is appropriate to recall briefly the developments and evolution of Forestry at the University. First started in 1903, the course in Forestry was, as now, under the College of Agriculture. The first Professor of Forestry was Samuel Newton Spring, Master of Forestry, who taught from 1903 to 1905. He was succeeded by Gordon Edwin Tower, M.F., who taught from 1905 to 1910. In the latter year Prof. John M. Briscoe, M.F., became Professor of Forestry and for 23 years headed the work until his death in 1933. He was followed by alumnus Dwight B. Demeritt '19 who served until his resignation this year. Present Department Head is Robert I. Ashman, Cornell '13.

Since 1936 the Department's work has also included courses in Wildlife Conservation so that graduates may now specialize in either phase of the program. The wildlife study is a recognition of the growing importance of the recreational assets of Maine and other states.

Distribution

Maine forestry graduates have followed their profession to all corners of the country and in many foreign lands, too. Where trees grow and woodlands need development, management, or replacement, there the forester has his place, and many of them are from Maine. The U. S. Forest Service and the Forest Departments of many of the states have provided professional opportunities for Maine men. Abroad, too, they have made their mark.

It is appropriate in this connection to note the recent story of Forester Leslie R. Holdridge '31 appearing in The Inter-American magazine for March; Holdridge is in charge of the development of the great natural resource of Haiti, the 150,000 acre pine forest of the mountains of this usually tropical island. Development of the forest has been so successful that it has enabled Haiti to turn out up to 400,000 board feet of lumber a month without decreasing the timber stand. Leslie Holdridge's work has made it possible for Haiti to export lumber for sale.

It is, of course, natural that Maine's own State Forest Service should have been largely staffed with University alumni; the present Forest Commissioner, Raymond Rendall '16, like others before him, received his training in the halls and at the camps of the University Forestry Department. The forest work of other states, too, owes much to men from Maine. In the Extension field Maine Foresters have contributed widely to the profession; in three New England states, Extension Forest Specialists hold degrees from Maine: A. D. Nutting '27 for Maine, G. W. C. Turner '27 for Vermont, and R. B. Parmenter '17 for Massachusetts.

Thus with the graduation of the first class in Forestry in 1906, forty years ago, a tradition was started which has grown through the years into a department with a reputation of which every Maine man is proud. With the increasing importance of natural resources such as the woods, streams, and wild life of the country, the work of the Forester seems destined to grow in value in the future.

C. E. Crossland Resigns As Alumni Secretary

Following his appointment to the position of assistant to the president of the University, Charles E. Crossland '17, for 18 years executive secretary of the General Alumni Association, has presented his resignation to the Alumni Council Executive Committee. The acceptance of the resignation which will take effect after the current school year has been announced by Association President Robert F. Thurrell '15 on behalf of the Executive Committee and the Council.

The position of assistant to the president will bring new responsibilities to the Executive Secretary and an opportunity to perform in a broader field of service to the University.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee held in Boston March 23, the future of the Executive Secretary's position was considered in detail and a committee appointed to recommend a successor to Mr. Crossland at the June meeting of the Council. Chairman of the group appointed by Mr. Thurrell is Hazen Ayer '24 of Boston, association vice president and chairman of the Executive Committee. Serving with him will be Fred D. Knight '09 of Hartford, George E. Lord '24 of Orono, and James Milton Sims '32 of Old Greenwich, Conn.

Members of the Executive Committee attending the recent meeting besides Mr. Thurrell, Mr. Ayer, and Mr. Sims were Myron C. Peabody '16 of Springfield, Mass., and Alton Littlefield '21 of Augusta.

Nominating Committee

Robert F. Thurrell '15 president of the General Alumni Association has named James M. Sims '32 of Boston to serve as chairman of the association general nominating committee. Harry E. Sutton '09 and Albert W. Wunderly '18 both of Boston are the other two members appointed by Mr. Thurrell.

This committee is responsible for presenting nominations in June for the officers of the association, the members at large of the Alumni Council whose terms expire this year, and one alumni member of the athletic board.

Those whose terms of office expire this year are as follows. President—Robert F. Thurrell '15, E. Wolfboro, N. H., Vice President—Hazen H. Ayer '24, Boston, Mass., Clerk—George F. Dow '27, Orono, and Treasurer—Richard S. Bradford '30, Orono.

Council Members: George D. Bearce '11, Bucksport, Clifton E. Chandler '13, Portland, Miss Jessie Fraser '31, Bangor, Fred D. Knight '09, Hartford, Conn., Alton T. Littlefield '21, Augusta, Miss Gertrude Peabody '20, and Thomas N. Weeks '16, Waterville.

Fraternities Plan Reopening

Definite and careful plans are under way for the active reopening of the men's fraternities at the University by next fall semester under the direction of the Council of Fraternity Chapter Advisers. The Council, consisting of the alumni adviser of each fraternity on the campus, has been meeting regularly during the war period to act in the interest of the fraternities and to make plans for the reopening of the chapters on an active basis.

Many undergraduate members of the fraternities have returned to the campus this spring and others are expected back in the fall. These groups will provide the necessary nucleus for each fraternity house at its reopening. It was found impossible to take such action for this spring semester but the opportunity will be taken during the summer months to handle the details necessary to return the houses from their present use by the University to the fraternities themselves.

The fraternities, it was brought out in recent meetings of the advisers, have come through the war in better condition than was expected. Financially the operation of the Fraternity Pooling Plan has spread available incomes evenly to all houses so that necessary fixed charges have been met without accumulating indebtedness. That income, moreover, has been much greater than at one time anticipated because of the heavy use of the houses by the University for soldier and civilian students; during this use the University paid a regular, fixed rental price for the use of each house. It has also agreed to return the house to the fraternity in the same condition it was in at the time it was taken over by the University.

The rehabilitation plan, drawn up by a special University Committee, has been thoroughly considered, discussed, and modified by the Council during its various meetings to bring it as close as possible to the reality of the current situation. Because of the heavy enrollment of students next fall and the shortage of housing, the plan involves filling each house to its capacity at the beginning of the semester. Thus in addition to the regular undergraduate members of the fraternity who will live there, the University will assign to each house enough non-member students to fill the house. Then at the earliest practicable date a rushing and pledging period will be held under the general supervision of the Council of Fraternity Chapter Advisers. After this non-members will be replaced at each house by new pledges; if any house fails to pledge its quota and fill its house, non-members will continue to live there and that house may continue to rush and pledge students until the full capacity is obtained. This system will apply to upperclass students only; a second rushing period, for freshmen, will be held in the spring semester and from then on the system will be operating under its normal schedule again.

In addition to discussing reactivation plans, the Council has been examining the entire field of fraternity relations. A new constitution and by-laws for the undergraduate Interfraternity Council have been discussed and approved for recommendation by the Council. As soon as the fraternities are reorganized the Interfraternity Council will again take over the general responsibility of fraternity affairs and the new constitution will regulate activities of the Interfraternity Council better than in the past. It is intended, however, that the Chapter Advisers shall also continue to function with regular meetings and in cooperation with the Interfraternity Council.

President of the Council of Fraternity Chapter Advisers is Weston Evans '18. Under his leadership the group has been meeting bi-monthly. In April a joint meeting is planned with representatives of undergraduate fraternity men; many of the undergraduate groups are already holding informal meetings.

Selected: by the voters of Orono in annual town elections Prof. Weston Evans '18 was chosen one of three new selectmen to hold town leadership during the coming year. Prof. Evans made his first venture into town electoral politics with this election but has long been actively interested in town affairs. He is Head of the Department of Civil Engineering at the University and has long been an interested supporter of the town manager form of government.

Dr. Lowell J. Reed '07 Is Johns Hopkins Vice-Pres.

Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore, Md., has named Dr. Lowell J. Reed '07 to the position of vice president in a move to promote closer relations between the great University and its equally great medical hospital. Dr. Reed has previously served as Director of the University's School of Hygiene and Public Health.

The significant honor which has come to Dr. Reed is the result of a long and successful career in the field of public health education. In making public the appointment of Dr. Reed, President Bowman of the University praised him for his broad consideration of the problems before the institution, his fund of information, and his ability "to accommodate diverse or conflicting opinions." Before his appointment as Director of the School last October he had served since 1937 as Dean. He has been a member of the faculty there since 1918.

Dr. Reed received his B.S. degree from Maine in 1907 in electrical engineering, then turned his attention to the field of mathematics. He was given the degree of Master of Science in 1912, also from Maine, and in 1915 received the Ph.D. from University of Pennsylvania where he had served as instructor. He then returned to Maine to teach as assistant professor of mathematics until the First World War. He then became director of the bureau of tabulations and statistics for the War Trade Board in Washington. Following the war he became associate professor of biostatistics at Johns Hopkins.

The appointment of Dr. Reed is one of the most outstanding recognitions in the field of education to come to a Maine alumnus in recent years.

While a student at Maine Lowell J. Reed was one of the most popular leaders of his class, as was also Mrs. Reed, the former Marion Balentine of the same class. Both were outstanding students and active in many fields. His study of engineering brought him into contact with higher mathematics, the field to which he has subsequently devoted his life. This work has been largely in the application of mathematics to the physical, chemical, and biological problems that arise in the field of public health.

Dr. Reed has contributed to many professional journals; his most significant contributions have been in the development of population theories. During World War II he served as consultant in medical statistics to the Surgeon Generals of the Navy and Army in addition to his other duties.

President of the Portland Chamber of Commerce is Fred T. Jordan '20, prominent insurance man of that city. Mr. Jordan was elected at the annual meeting by the Directors on March 18. Making his home in Portland shortly after his attendance at Maine Mr. Jordan coached athletics at Portland High School in 1924, resigning in 1928 to enter the insurance business. He is now manager of the Home Office Agency of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company. In 1943 he served as general chairman of the Community Chest Campaign.

Foreign service in the rehabilitation of Germany's war-disrupted railroads will be the job of engineer Jedediah E. Weeks '15 of Monroe, Mich. He has been named Assistant Chief of Transportation, a civilian position comparable to the rank of Colonel in the Army. The entire scope of his position has not yet been set up pending extensive surveys of the problem but it is understood that it will extend beyond the actual railroad field into other needs of the disintegrated people. Mr. Weeks has had extensive railroad experience.

Volunteer coach of the Brunswick, Maine, high school basketball team this winter was George Crimmins '30 who took over the job in addition to other duties when it was impossible to get a regular coach. The result, according to news reports, was an outstanding team which for the first time in some fifteen years took the school into the Western Maine Tournament. Mr. Crimmins, besides his basketball coaching, is director of athletics, coach of baseball, coach of swimming, and a regular teacher in the school.

Dr. Lowell J. Reed '07

Retired: Recent news from John Maynard Dodge '16 brings word that he retired in June, 1945, from his position as vice president of the Double Seal Ring Co. with whom he had been associated nearly 20 years. Mr. Dodge began his engineering career in 1916 with the International Paper Co. at New York, then during World War I worked with the U. S. Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corp., until 1926. This work took him to Nova Scotia and Brazil. In 1926 he went to work with Double Seal Ring Co., makers of piston rings for all purposes except automotive, including large Diesel engines in which Mr. Dodge specialized. Two trips to Europe took him to Norway, Scotland, and England on successful selling ventures. He became vice president in charge of the Northeastern Division and also in charge of the New York plant and all foreign sales. Since his retirement Mr. Dodge has done consulting engineering and also interests himself in the lumbering business. He is living at Bally Haly, Boothbay, Maine.

Pastor and author George S. Brookes '25 of Rockville, Conn., who preached the Baccalaureate sermon at Maine's Commencement last June, has requested his release from the active service of the parish he has served for twenty years, according to word in the alumni bulletin of the Bangor Seminary. Dr. Brookes who holds the Ph.D. degree from Hartford has found time during his devoted and busy years at Rockville to write an outstanding biography, Friend Anthony Beneset, on the life of a colonial Quaker, and the autobiographical Thank You, America, expressing the feelings of foreign-born citizens toward this country. Dr. Brookes himself is a native of England. Dr. Brookes has not yet revealed his future plans following his retirement.

Chosen to head the Bangor Chamber of Commerce is William B. Hill '15, General Freight Agent for the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad. As President of the Chamber Mr. Hill will head a large and active group of Bangor business men who have in hand important projects for the betterment of their city. Mr. Hill has long been an active leader in civic affairs and is also busy in alumni activities. Besides his association with the Penobscot County Association he is currently a member of the Bangor Area Alumni Placement Committee.

Medals and decorations have been awarded to several alumni for their participation in World War II during the month. Posthumously the Bronze Star has been awarded to Myron F. Peabody '45 of Springfield, Mass. On Feb. 27, 1946, presentation was made in a ceremony carried out through the First Service Command. In the citation Private Peabody was praised for the heroic work done on the day of his death in Italy. Advancing through artillery and small arms fire he acted as platoon messenger and helped to rout enemy machine guns. "Such outstanding courage, personal aggressiveness, and staunch devotion to duty justly deserve the sincere gratitude of all.

From the Class of 1922 Captain Elton Feeney has received the Army's Commendation Ribbon for outstanding service. A veteran of World War I, Captain Feeney has been in service more than four years in World War II and is at present serving as commanding officer of the Recruit Assembly Depot, Fort Devens, Mass.

Major Lawrence L. Buck '26 with the Signal Section of Army Ground Forces Headquarters has received the Legion of Merit award. Entering service in June, 1942, Major Buck has served with the Signal Section and has been officer in charge of the Developments Branch of the section. For his work in this important activity he was cited "for exceptionally meritorious achievement in the performance of outstanding service."

The Bronze Star has been awarded to Oscar M. Taylor '35 of Rumford, formerly Lieutenant (j.g.) in the Navy and in command of an anti-aircraft gunboat. During the assault and capture of Okinawa Lt. Taylor led his men in fighting off many sustained air assaults. The award of the Bronze Star was for heroic service in connection with these operations though forced to maneuver in reef-infested waters.

New Names

This month sees the addition of five new names to the Military list. They are:

1939

Bartlett, Charles

1942

Virginia E. May, ARC

1943

McKenn, Richard, Army

1949

Bachelder, Richard

Byers, Robert

Missing in Action	6

Skipper of a supply ship from Pearl Harbor to outlying islands such as Palmyra, Johnston, and Midway is Lt. (j.g.) George F. Piper '42 of Biddeford. He is busy shuttling supplies and trying to keep a crew on the vessel he commands as so many find themselves with sufficient discharge points on their arrival at Pearl Harbor. He writes that he often meets classmates John Medina and David Greenwood at the Harbor. Skipper Piper is hoping for his own discharge by July.

A letter from Virginia E. May '42 brings word that she has recently been discharged from war service with the American Red Cross, serving overseas for some 18 months in New Guinea and the Philippines. The duties included just about everything, she writes, from serving doughnuts from the back of a jeep to making couches out of cots and burlap. She served with the Club and Recreation Dept., visiting all the bases in New Guinea, spending most time in Oro Bay and Hollandia. Since her return she has been living at her home in Wellesley, Mass., while writing a series on her experiences for a Boston paper.

Medical Corps Captain Monroe J. Romansky '33 was awarded the Legion of Merit recently in recognition of his medical research activities at the Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C. He was cited at the presentation for "pertinacity in research, professional skill, and devotion to duty" which brought about improvements in the techniques for administering penicillin and thereby saved lives and alleviated pain and suffering. Captain Romansky was engaged in the research at Washington from July, 1942, to October, 1945.

Commissioned an ensign in the Naval Reserve was Carlton G. Lutts '47 of Salem, Mass., who completed a program in aeronautical engineering at Worcester Polytechnic Institute last month. He received also his B.S. degree. During his freshman year at Maine Ensign Lutts enlisted in V-12. During his work at Worcester he was active in musical work. Following his commission he will be assigned to Pearl Harbor in aircraft maintenance.

Teacher of agriculture at Triesdorf, Germany, is Sgt. Cornelius W. Frost '44. With the First Army at the Battle of the Bulge, Sgt. Frost was wounded in Aachen, hospitalized in Paris. Later he was with the Third Army in Austria, then went to Triesdorf where he is an instructor in the Agricultural College.

Presentation of the Bronze Star was made last month to Sergeant James W. Ingalls, Jr., '42, in a ceremony at the Pentagon Building, Washington. Sgt. Ingalls was cited for specially meritorious service as a member of a special commission in the Philippine Islands investigating a dangerous tropical disease. He developed special techniques which enabled the commission to carry out its investigation.

At the Thomas M. England General Hospital, Atlantic City, N. J., Staff Sergeant William P. Gilman '42 is undergoing rehabilitation training for the blind. Sgt. Gilman lost the sight of both eyes as the result of a severe head wound in Germany just a year ago. Today he is learning to typewrite, to read Braille, and generally to rebuild his life for the future.

Sgt. Gilman's progress was reported in a story in the alumni magazine of N. J. College for Women.

WAC Captain Barbara Sawyer of Greene, Class of 1933, was discharged from the women's Army at the end of December following 14 months of overseas service in India and China. Enlisting in the Army in August, 1942, she was based in Iowa, Florida, and South Carolina before going overseas with a week's notice. Her travels have taken her one and a half times around the world. First stop abroad was in Bombay from where she flew to Calcutta. Her experiences in India included being guest of a maharaja, visiting famed Kashmir Valley, and seeing the Taj Mahal. Her assignment to Chungking took her over "The Hump" and back by air. In the Chinese capitol she met Chiang Kai Shek. She returned to the States from China after the end of the war.

The floating home of First Lieutenant Dexter McCausland '36 of Portland is the Liberty ship Brig. Gen. Lyon, a floating air depot staffed by air force maintenance men and manned by men of the Merchant Marine. McCausland himself is a Signal Corps Army radar officer. With this vessel air forces operating in outlying Pacific areas were able to have inspection, overhaul, and repair on any of the numerous items of equipment needed to keep the planes flying. Anchored now off Yokohama, Lieut. McCausland's floating hotel has been in Pacific waters about a year.

Tuition—

An increase in the tuition rates of the University effective on July 1 has been approved by the Board of Trustees following a detailed, comprehensive study of educational needs and costs. For residents of Maine the tuition will be increased from $150 to $175 per academic year; for out-of-state students the increase is from $250 to $300 per year. The present tuition rates have been in effect at Maine since 1930. Since then the costs of education and of operation at the University have steadily increased while income from the state is less today than in 1930.

Medical—

At a recent meeting of the Maine Legislative Research Committee according to the newspapers preliminary consideration was given to the possibility of organizing a Maine Medical School at Orono and Bangor under the jurisdiction of the University in close cooperation with the Eastern Maine General Hospital, Bangor. Urged at the meeting were the factors that such a school would provide opportunity for Maine students to study medicine and would help to supply needed doctors to the state. Since 1921 when the previous Medical School at Bowdoin was closed, Maine has been one of six states without such educational facilities. Dr. Edward L. Herlihy '18 of Bangor presented the need on behalf of the Maine Medical Association.

Awarded—

Four students in Agriculture were recipients of scholarships established by radio station WGAN of Portland last month. Awards are based on character, scholarship, leadership, and participation in 4-H Club work. This year's winners are: Kathryn Bennett '49 of Buckfield, Home Economics; Ralph D. Blanchard '47 of Auburn, Dairy Husbandry; Mary A. Gray '48 of Orrington, Home Economics; and Hazel M. Nutt '46 of West Rockport, Home Economics.

Dean's List—

The total of 303 students were listed on the fall semester Dean's List of students with an average of B or better. Topping the list were the names of two all-A students, Phyllis Pendleton '47 of Caribou, Romance Languages, and Charles Cunningham '48 of Washburn, Agronomy.

Senate—

Dwight Moody '46 of Lincoln was elected president of the Men's Senate last month at a reorganization meeting for the Spring Semester. Vice president with him is Bryce Lambert '48 of Houlton; William Wilson '47 of Eastport was continued in his position of secretary. The Men's Senate named an executive committee to act between meetings. The new president praised the interest and participation of all classes in the senate work.

Drama—

Under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Cheney Stevens '19 the Maine Masque presented at the University last month Soldier's Wife, recent Broadway success. The cast of five students was praised for a competent, smooth performance of the modern, sophisticated drama.

Players were Laurel Clements '48 of Winterport, Janice Scales '48 of Portland, Lee Davis '48 of Vanceboro, Merle Goff '48 of Westbrook, and Jean Campbell '48 of Portland.

Contest—

The annual State Secondary School Scholarship Contest of the University is scheduled for April 20 with senior students from high schools throughout the state competing for seventeen tuition scholarships offered for the winners. The contest is set up on a district basis with two awards being given in each of the six districts and five given at large to the top winners on a state-wide basis. Direction of the contest is under the School of Education.

Calendar—

For the benefit of the University Emergency Service Fund, for charity purposes, students have produced and are selling an attractive Maine Calendar. Each month, printed on a separate sheet, features a large, attractive picture of some familiar campus view. This is the first time in many years that a campus calendar has been printed and it is hoped to continue this feature in future years if the sale of the calendars warrants it. Alumni who are interested in purchasing a calendar are invited to send a dollar to the Alumni Office.

Speaker—

Chinese morale leader Dr. Liu Liang-Mo spoke at a general assembly on the campus on March 21 to give Maine students a picture of the situation, problems, and promises of post-war China. To build a united nation after the terrible losses and hardships of their long war against Japan the Chinese people, he reported, are striving for a democratic government.

Emeritus . . .

On June 30, 1937, Dr. Edith Patch completed 34 years of service with the Agricultural Experiment Station, retiring from her position as Head of the Department of Entomology. With her title of Emeritus she received the honorary degree of Doctor of Science conferred at the Commencement exercises of that year. Previously she had received the M.S. degree from Maine in 1910.

Dr. Patch was the second woman to take a position on the Maine faculty, coming in 1903 to organize a department of entomology at the Experiment Station and also to teach courses in Entomology and in English. Though her teaching duties ceased the following year, Miss Patch has always found ample opportunity to live a busy and useful life. She became during her years one of the outstanding scientific research workers on the Station staff and established a worldwide reputation as an authority on aphids. At the same time she found opportunity to write a large number of delightful children's books on scientific and nature subjects which are as educational and accurate as they are charming for the reader. In these books she gave children not only a pleasant and accurate picture of the world of nature but also bequeathed to them something of her own boundless love and sympathy for the world of living creatures.

The publication by Dr. Patch of her monumental "Food Plant Catalogue of the Aphids of the World" was the culmination of her professional life and marked the accumulation of her painstaking, unremitting research efforts, work which has brought her the honor and respect of scientists all over the world.

Since her retirement Dr. Patch has lived for the most part at her home on Stillwater Avenue in Orono, just above the University campus. She is still a familiar figure at campus activities, maintaining many of her old friendships by regular attendance at events and activities of general interest.

Recent Alumni Publications

A number of books by alumni have recently come from the nation's presses in widely varying fields.

Plant Life of the Pacific World by Dr. Elmer Drew Merrill '98. This small, paper covered handbook, one of the "Fighting Forces Series," is crammed with informative material on the forests and jungles of the great Pacific Ocean basin, with its myriad islands and some 45,000 different kinds of plants. Instructive and educational as the book needed to be, it is also entertaining and readable in the highest degree. Dr. Merrill, Administrator of the Botanical Collections of Arnold Arboretum and Professor of Botany of Harvard, is among the leading world authorities on Pacific botany; probably no one else could have written a book on the subject so successful in its dual purpose to interest and to teach. One reviewer has said, "It is encyclopedic and of infinite variety, but more than that, it is... incredibly interesting... even exciting and such obvious evidence of a mature and profound scholarship as to be quite entrancing."

Also in a technical field is a new book on Longleaf Pine by Forester William G. Wahlenberg '17, for years with the Southern Forest Experiment Station under the U. S. Forest Service and now at Crossett Experimental Forest, Crossett, Ark. Mr. Wahlenberg has published one of the most complete studies on a single tree species ever prepared, according to notice from the Forest Service. The economic value of longleaf pine to the south is stressed and the book emphasizes that longleaf is now found on only half the area it formerly occupied. Lumbering, fire, damage by hogs, and encroachment by competitive species are given as causes for the decline of this important resource. The author makes definite recommendations on the use of fire and other management factors. The volume is published jointly by the U. S. Forest Service and the Charles Lathrop Pack Forestry Foundation, Washington, D. C. Copies are obtainable from the latter Foundation at 1214 16th St.

The field of humanities is included among recent books in the volume by Dr. O. Spurgeon English '22, Professor of Psychiatry, Temple U., Philadelphia, who has prepared in collaboration with a colleague Emotional Problems of Living. This interesting and attractive volume is intended as a text book on psychological problems for medical students and at the same time accomplishes the difficult task of being a readable and eminently useful book for laymen. Parents, teachers, counsellors, anyone dealing closely with human development, especially in the years of infancy and childhood, will find the text of inestimable value. The book, as its title indicates, covers the many complicated emotional problems of modern life from the early years through adulthood in its sixteen chapters. Much of the readability of the book comes from the well-chosen case histories and examples used to illustrate the problems discussed; many of these are drawn from Dr. English's psychiatric practise. The volume is of 438 pages, including index, and is published by W. W. Norton & Co.

In the field of fiction Miriam Colwell '39 of Prospect Harbor has written Wind Off the Water, a novel of Maine seacoast life. Centered around the narrow, harsh, and hazardous life of the lobster and coastal fishermen of a small Maine village, this first novel is primarily one of character rather than incident even though a number of eventful happenings affect and to some extent determine the lives and fates of the central group of characters. Realism is emphasized throughout and the characters, language, and background are as homely and actual as the red-hot stove in the general store, social center of village life. The struggles and bickerings of the villagers, and their futile attempts to break out of the monotonous round of daily routine, each in the way his or her particular character impels, comprise the story. Plot is subordinated to a pitiless analysis of the inner motives and impulses of the men and women of the village. Even the ever-present sea plays a minor role in this drama of grim, frustrated lives. Wind Off the Water is published by Random House of New York, 232 pages.

Commencement Committee

Prof. Harry D. Watson '18, head of the mechanical engineering department, has been appointed by President Arthur A. Hauck to serve as chairman of the commencement committee which will arrange the program for the 1946 commencement.

Other members of the commencement committee named by Pres. Hauck and by Robert F. Thurrell, President of the General Alumni Association, are as follows: Prof. Frances Arnold '10, Orono, Avery C. Hammond '11, Bangor, Mrs. Barbara D. Hitchner '20, Orono, Joseph B. Chaplin '21, Bangor, Mrs. Phyllis H. Webster '36, Hampden, Thomas L. Barker '39, Bangor, Prof. Nathan H. Rich '40, Orono, George Nystrom '41, Orono, and Miss Erna Davis '42, Orono.

Student members of this committee are: Ralph Emerson, president of the senior class and David Holmes and Mary Libby, co-chairmen of the senior class commencement committee

Add Many New Names To University Faculty

With the sharply increased enrollments of the second semester the University has added many new members to the teaching and research faculty.

In the College of Agriculture nine new teaching faculty are listed as follows: Malcolm W. Coulter, Graduate Assistant in Wildlife Conservation; Thomas G. Culton, Assistant Professor of Poultry Husbandry; Erna E. Davis '42, Temporary Instructor, Home Economics; Edwin L. Giddings '33, Instructor in Forestry; Cecil E. Howes '41, Instructor in Poultry Husbandry; Paul L. Johnson '40, Assistant in Agronomy; A. Lionel Perry '42, Assistant in Agricultural Economics; Moody F. Trevett, Assistant Professor of Agronomy, and Roland A. Struchtmeyer, Assistant Professor of Agronomy.

The large group of new teachers in Arts and Sciences includes: Ervin Arbo '40, Graduate Assistant in Mathematics; Stanley N. Cressey, Instructor in English; Donald B. Devoe '41, Graduate Assistant in Physics; George H. Ellis '41, Graduate Assistant in economics; Mrs. Leola Chaplin Ellis '17, part-time Instructor in English; Eugene B. Gordon, Instructor in Mathematics; Lloyd W. Griffin '41, Graduate Assistant in English; Henry C. Hawley, Professor of Business Administration; F. Stansbury Haydon, Assistant Professor of History; Arthur G. Humes, Instructor in Zoology; William H. Jeffrey, Instructor in History and Government; Mrs. Elsa Klein, temporary Instructor in German; Leonard I. Lutwack, Instructor in English; Wesley C. Panunzio, Instructor in Romance Languages; Rachel V. Reed, Graduate Assistant in English; Mrs. O. H. Sanderlin, part-time Instructor in English; William Sezak, Graduate Assistant in Economics; Roger D. Stewart '43, Graduate Assistant in Mathematics; John Suminsby '44, Instructor in Physics; Louis Thibodeau '40, temporary Instructor in French; John E. Watson, Graduate Assistant in English.

In the College of Technology are: Frank E. Brewster '42, Instructor in Chemistry; Frederick W. Dow, Instructor in Chemistry; Donald E. Marriner '42, Graduate Assistant in Chemistry; Roger Stinchfield '39, Graduate Assistant in Chemistry; George C. Treat '41, temporary Instructor in Engineering Drafting; Albert K. Sawyer, Graduate Assistant in Chemistry; and Robert F. Tebbe, Assistant Professor of Chemistry.

Other new names on the campus include Paul Carpenter as Assistant Agronomist in the Agricultural Experiment Station; Lindsey Chalmers '25 as manager of dormitories; Capt. Chester T. Corse in Military Science and Tactics; Sgt. Lloyd B. Davis, clerk in Military Science and Tactics; Col. Francis R. Fuller, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

VARSITY TRACK

In the first indoor track meet at Maine since 1943, Bowdoin won a dual meet on March 9 by the score of 66 to 51. In spite of superior performances by Al Hutchinson and Martin Hagopian who won praise for equalling the 50-yard dash field house record, the visitors showed a convincing power in several events. Hutchinson, former track star, returned to the University this year, won the 50-yard and also the 300-yard race. Hagopian, new to the track team, not only took second in the 50 but also placed in the broad jump. Coach Jenkins also found reason for pleasure in the performances of two other newcomers to his squad as John Barnard of Augusta won the 1000-yard run and Aaron Nelson the two mile. Maine swept all places in the shot put with George Marsankis leading.

The outdoor track season will feature a meet at New Hampshire on May 4 with Brown, Boston College, Bates, Maine, and New Hampshire participating. On May 11 the State Meet will be held at Lewiston, and on May 18 the New England Meet at the M.I.T. field, Cambridge.

Other new activities on the athletic front include the reactivation of the undergraduate M Club and the Pale Blue Key. The M Club in its initial meeting of the post-war period elected Al Hutchinson as president. The Pale Blue Key, organization of athletic numeral winners, met to reorganize the group and to sponsor again campus activities and the entertainment of visiting teams. John Barnard of Augusta was elected president.

Coach Bill Kenyon has called out his varsity baseball players to get ready for a full schedule of state and New England games starting April 20. The diamond sport will also sponsor a junior varsity team this spring with a seven-game schedule at home with Maine preparatory teams. The latest meeting of the Athletic Board has also brought out plans to reinstate golf as a regular sport this spring with some matches with state colleges. Tennis teams, too, will be busy during the spring months with a schedule to include two games with each of the Maine colleges and possibly a match with Rhode Island at Orono.

Looking forward to the fall the varsity football schedule has been released with a full pre-war line-up of games covering seven weeks from September 28 to November 9. Junior varsity football will also be sponsored.

The full schedules of all sports, as far as they have been decided to date, appear on this page.

CORRECTION: Your editors apologize for identifying the accompanying picture incorrectly in March. It should have been in tribute to the memory of Lieut. Warren F. Pierce '43, AAF, who died in service March 19, 1945, in Germany.

Southern New Hampshire Alumni Association had Coach George E. Allen and Alumni Secretary Charles E. Crossland as guest speakers at their annual meeting which was held March 21, 1946, in Concord. Ralph Avery '27, president of the Association, presided. Robert F. Thurrell '15, president of the General Alumni Association, was introduced and spoke briefly. Officers were elected as follows: President, Dan Pillsbury '25, Londonderry; Vice President, Joseph Bodwell '15, Concord; Secretary, Vivian McKenney '31, Concord; Treasurer, Roger Clement '27, Portsmouth.

The Maine Club of Auburn-Lewiston met on March 21 with "Pat" Casey, former star athlete for Brown University, as guest of the meeting. Mr. Casey told interesting reminiscences of the days when as All-American halfback he played against such greats as Charley Buckley of Harvard and Indian Jim Thorpe of Carlisle. The meeting was attended by 21 members.

Northeastern New York association met for their annual meeting, election of officers, and a visit by Dean Kendall on March 15. New president of the group is Harry R. Mayers '30 of Schenectady; vice presidents are Robert R. Owen '21, Earl F. Bennett '28 (for Albany), and Everett G. Ham '16 (for Troy).

Western New York Alumni report an enjoyable business and social meeting at Buffalo last month with 23 members and guests present. The meeting was under the leadership of vice president C. Weston Steward '24 in the absence of the president. Guest of honor was Dean Glenn Kendall of the School of Education who gave viewpoints of a newcomer to the University. At the business meeting Charles Hoff '30 was elected president, William E. Crowell '37 vice president, and Linwood McPheters '40 secretary.

An informal dinner and dance is being held by the Maine Alumni Association of Boston at the Beaconsfield Hotel, 1731 Beacon Street, Brookline, at 6.00 p.m., Saturday, April 27. The dinner and dance will cost $5.50 a couple and for those who are unable to attend the dinner but can come to the dance, the charge will be only $2.00 a couple. This will be a wonderful opportunity for veterans and others to get together to exchange experiences and meet old friends. Reservations may be made with Philip R. White, Secretary, 49 Federal Street, Boston—Hubbard 4530.

Faculty Deaths

Harley R. Willard

The death of Dr. Harley R. Willard, Professor Emeritus of Mathematics and Astronomy, was reported on March 27 following an extended period of illness. Native of Sutton, Vermont, and graduate of Dartmouth College and Yale University, Dr. Willard taught at Maine from 1904 until his retirement in June, 1944. He was made head of the Department of Mathematics and Astronomy in 1924. In addition to the bachelor and master degrees he held from Dartmouth he received the Ph.D. from Yale in 1912. He was a member of several learned societies and of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi honorary scholastic societies.

He was 70 years old at the time of his death. He leaves three children, all alumni of the University, Mildred '35, Richard '36, and Paul '37.

Mrs. Gertrude P. Hayes

On March 16 Mrs. Gertrude Prescott Hayes, for many years matron and house director on the campus, died at a Bangor hospital following an illness of several months. She was 66 years old. A native of Bangor, Mrs. Hayes was married to an alumnus of Maine, the late Andrew Hayes '05. Following the death of her husband she became associated with the University, first as manager of the University Inn in Orono. She then served as house director for The Maples on the campus and subsequently served for several years in Colvin Hall. She leaves a son, Edward K. Hayes of the Class of 1939.

GOLD STARS: Private Milo W. Hughes '46 (at left) has been declared killed in action as of August 14, 1944, in France. Details are given on this page. Naval Lieut. Thomas C. Johnson '36 (at right) lost his life in the South Pacific in November, 1942.

Our GOLD STARS

1937

ROLAND LAURIER ALBERT. Following the official listing of missing in action on August 20, 1944, Lieutenant Roland L. Albert was declared presumed dead by the War Department February 28, 1946. Lieutenant Albert was a Lewiston resident and graduate of Lewiston High School in 1933. He attended Maine with the Class of 1937 where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. After leaving Maine he was employed for a time in Boston. In the Army Air Corps he trained as a navigator and bombardier, receiving wings as a Navigator at Monroe, La., Sept 4, 1943, and as a Bombardier at Roswell, N. M., in November. Following combat training for work with B-29's he left this country in April, 1944. In the C.B.I. theatre he flew his last mission to Japan in August, 1945, at the age of 30.

MILO WALTON HUGHES. On August 14, 1944, Private Milo W. Hughes, of Houlton, was declared missing in action; a year later the War Department issued a presumptive statement of death as of the same date. Private Hughes, a graduate of Houlton High School where he was a member of the National Honor Society, attended Maine only a year with the Class of 1946, enlisting on January 7, 1944. Following training at Devens and Camp Croft he went across to England, July 15, 1944. He went to France at once, arriving there July 24. Ten days later he was declared missing in action. A subsequent report from France was that he was killed in action at Tinchebray, France. Private Hughes was 20 years old when he was killed.

Necrology

CHARLES WILBUR FERNALD. Word has been received of the death in January of Charles W. Fernald of South Levant. Mr. Fernald who was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and a graduate in chemistry had been retired for several years before his death.

1905

FRANCIS TRENHOLM CROWE. One of America's greatest construction engineers was lost to his profession last month with the passing of Francis T. Crowe on February 26 in a hospital at Redding, Calif. Cause of his sudden death was given as heart failure; the 63-year-old construction genius was still actively associated with the business in which he spent 40 years and achieved international leadership. Born in Quebec, Canada, of Maine parents, Mr. Crowe entered the University in Civil Engineering. As an undergraduate he was active in several fields and became a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. On his graduation he began to specialize in the building of dams with the Bureau of Reclamation. His professional career coincided with the era of development in dam construction, and his ability brought him responsibilities as superintendent, project manager, and construction engineer on Arrowrock Dam, Idaho, Tieton Dam, and others. Later he was associated with the Six Companies and for them built Boulder Dam in five years instead of the contracted seven. His last job was on the building of Shasta, second largest of his famous projects, for Pacific Constructors, Inc. Altogether he recorded his leadership and ability in the construction of 19 great dams in the West. In 1944 he was awarded one of two awards by The Moles for achievement in heavy construction for his work "in the field of the world's highest and deepest dams." He was honored also by his University by the award of the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Engineering in 1935.

1915

LESTER WOODSUM CASWELL. Word has been received of the passing of Lester W. Caswell of Kittery on Sept. 3, 1942. Death was reported to have occurred at Portsmouth. Mr. Caswell was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and had been employed in the Navy Yard at Portsmouth.

1917

RALPH OZRO DEERING. A lengthy illness terminated in the death from heart disease of Ralph O. Deering of Denmark on March 16. Mr. Deering had been engaged in farming at Denmark since his attendance at the University. He was 52 years of age at his death. He was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. He was brother of Dean A. L. Deering '12 and father of a daughter now a freshman at the University.

1918

FRANK THOMAS SPELLISY. Notice of the death of Dr. Frank Spellisy of Marlborough, Mass., on February 4, 1944, has been received by the Alumni Office. Cause of his death was given as coronary occlusion. Dr. Spellisy attended Tufts Medical School after his work at Maine to receive the M.D. degree in 1919. He had been a practicing physician in Marlborough.

FROM the CLASSES

EVERETT LUFKIN SMITH The sudden death from heart failure of Everett L. Smith occurred on March 12 at Westfield, N. J. Mr. Smith, 46 years old, was employed as a street lighting and industrial power specialist at the Newark office of General Electric. A member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and graduate in electrical engineering, Mr. Smith had worked for 22 years with the General Electric Company. He was a native of East Orrington.

1926

VIRGIL ROLAND LEVEILLE Native of Bangor, and graduate of Bangor High School, V. Roland Leveille died suddenly at the age of 42 at his home in that city on February 25. He attended the University with the Class of 1926 and afterward made his home in Bangor. He was widely known as a musician and was a member of the Bangor Band and the Bangor Symphony Orchestra.

LEO MAURICE WISE For many years proprietor of the Carmel Auto Rest near Bangor and for the last three years employed by Pan-American Airlines in Miami, Florida, Leo M. Wise was the victim of accidental drowning near Miami on February 25. A native of Bangor and graduate of local schools, Mr. Wise attended Maine with the Class of 1929. He was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity. He was 38 years old at the time of his death.

BY CLASSES

1896 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

The 55th anniversary of Nathan E. Goodridge's entry into the dairy business in Orono was noted by the local paper last month. Mr. Goodridge, proprietor of the Orono Dairy, went into the business with his father and then on his father's death in 1915 took over the active management which he has carried out since that time. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American War and a former selectman of the town.

The firm of Stromberg-Carlson Co., of which Dr. Ray H. Manson is president, has announced completion of the engineering work on its first post-war television receiver, a 10-inch direct viewing type with 27 tubes. Dr. Manson has said that the receiver will be on the market before the end of the year.

Dr. Elmer Drew Merrill, Director of the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University, has been elected a foreign member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences, Stockholm.

1899 Walter J. Morrill, who has retired as Professor of Forestry at Colorado Agricultural College, now resides at 615 Remington St., Ft. Collins, Colorado.

1901 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

Latest residence address for Fred H. Bogart is 2121 Camus Rd., So. Euclid, Ohio.

Word from Charles A. Mitchell gives his home address as 558 Eastern Pt., Groton, Conn.

1905 The official representative of the University of Maine at the inauguration of the new chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, was Ernest O. Sweetser, Professor of Civil Engineering at that University. Prof. Sweetser participated in the colorful ceremonies investing Dr. Arthur Compton with the responsibilities of the chancellorship. Prof. Sweetser resides at 7145 Lindell Ave., St. Louis, Missouri.

Alfonzo Wood, President and Treasurer of P. S. Thorsen Co., of Brooklyn, N. Y., with Mrs. Wood, recently visited Georgia and Florida where they had the opportunity to call upon their youngest daughter and son-in-law who is in military service in that area. Mr. Wood's business address is 81 Coffey St., Brooklyn.

1906 Veteran State Senator Oscar H.

Dunbar has announced his candidacy for reelection to that body in the June primary voting. Mr. Dunbar is a leading Republican of Washington County, residing in Machias. He served in the Senate in 1942 and 1944; his first legislative experience was in 1913 as a member of the Maine House.

David N. Rogers who lives in Quincy, California, is doing consulting work in forestry. He retired last year as supervisor of the Plumas National Forest after 35 years of service in his profession.

The retirement of Charles E. Currier has been announced. He was formerly associated with the engineering department of the Chevrolet Division of General Motors in Detroit. Since his retirement he lives at 175 Crary Ave., Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

1907 Rosmer S. Devereux of Worcester, Mass., was recently called to his home town, Castine, by the death of his sister there. Mr. Devereux makes his home at 29 Maywood St., Worcester.

Attorney Robert W. DeWolf of Portland has been named chairman of a committee of local sportsmen to promote a Portland baseball club in the newly revived New England League this summer. Mr. DeWolf is an enthusiastic supporter of athletics as a preventer of crime. He was formerly Judge of the Municipal Court in Portland. His business office is at 102 Exchange St., and residence at 201 Davenport St., Portland.

Frank W. Twombly is in his 30th year of employment with the Buffalo Forge Co., as District Manager of their Cincinnati Office at 626 Broadway. He lives at Terrace Park, Ohio.

H. C. Riddle who has spent recent winters in Deland, Florida, has returned to Kennebago Lake Camps, Kennebago Lake, to put it in order for the summer. Any classmate who enjoys fishing and the outdoors could spend a pleasant vacation at his camps.

1911 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

Word has been received from George Haley who writes that some will remember him best as "Hokey" Haley.

After leaving Maine he taught English and Mathematics at the Japanese Naval Academy for nine years. He can now be reached at P. O. Box 265, Berkeley, California.

1912 New secretary of the Maine Commission of Pharmacy is Victor H. Hinkley of Brewer according to announcement of the elections of the group last month. At the time Mr. Hinkley was undergoing treatment at a Boston hospital following illness of some weeks' duration.

Arthur Deering, Dean of the College of Agriculture at the University, has been chosen to represent the Extension Directors of 12 northeastern states on the National Committee on Extension Organization and Policy.

1913 Listed among the announced candidates for nomination for the Maine legislature is Edward E. Chase of Cape Elizabeth who has put his name in the running as representative from the Cape Elizabeth-Scarboro District. Veteran of the legislature from 1927 to 1930 and also experienced from his service as assistant clerk of the House in 1917, Mr. Chase is familiar with the work of the legislative body. He has served several years as President of the Trustees of the University and is widely known in Maine and New England, being a former president of the New England Council. Mr. Chase is president of Maine Securities Company in Portland.

1914 Captain A. Lincoln King, U. S. Naval Reserve, of Portland, has returned to civilian life following his active war service. He resides at 38 Neal St., Portland.

John N. Junkins, formerly employed by Tennessee Valley Authority, is now an engineer for the Vern E. Alden Co., Chicago. His home address is 1961 Spruce Drive, Glenview, Ill.

Chief Engineer for Champion Paper Co. of Lawrence, Mass., is Leon A. Field. He is living at 5 Walcott Ave., Andover, Mass.

1916 John M. Dodge, formerly employed by Double Seal Ring Corp., of New York City, is now retired from active business and is living at Boothbay.

The posthumous award of the Bronze Star has been made to the late Myron F. Peabody, son of Myron C. of Springfield, Mass. The award was made for heroic achievement in action in April, 1945. Mr. Peabody's son lost his life in the fighting in the European theatre of action.

A new appointment has been announced for Harry S. Toole. He is now Technologist, reporting to the manager of the Engineering Research Section, Rayon Department of E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., Wilmington, Del. He lives at 626 Strathaven Ave., Swarthmore, Pa.

Winfred H. Edminster, for 24 years superintendent of schools at Norway, Waterford, and Oxford, has resigned to accept a position with the Veterans Administration at Togus.

1917 Confirmation of the Governor's nomination of Cecil J. Siddall of Sanford to be reporter of decisions for the State Supreme Court has been announced by the Governor's Council. Mr. Siddall, an attorney at Sanford, is a former commander of the American Legion in Maine. He will serve a term of not more than four years.

Worthen E. Brawn, general superintendent of Pejepscot Paper Co., Topsham, has been elected vice president of the Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry at the TAPPI convention held in New York recently.

1918 A visitor to the campus last month was Arthur F. Moul of Buffalo. Mr. Moul is vice president and general manager of S. C. Rogers Machine Co., of Buffalo, and resides at 66 Clarendon street in that city.

Thomas W. Borjesson has sent notice of his present address at Beals, Maine, where he is principal of the high school. Mr. Borjesson was married during the winter to Miss Margaret Mersereau of Dover-Foxcroft.

Dr. Edward L. Herlihy of Bangor, prominent physician and surgeon, addressed the Maine Pharmaceutical Association at Bangor last month on the subject of socialized medicine under government jurisdiction. He spoke before about 175 members and guests of the association.

Forester Robert G. Hutton has been named supervisor of the western division for the Maine State Forest Service. Previously Mr. Hutton was Chief Forest Warden, a position he has held since 1940. His new district includes the territory from Rangeley to the head of the Allegash River.

Judge Robert Rich of Berlin, N. H., was recently honored by award of the Selective Service Medal by President Truman for his services on the New Hampshire Selective Service Board. Judge Rich, an attorney in Berlin, has also received word of the discharge from service of his son, Robert C.

1919 Samuel E. Jones is now employed by Western Electric Co. at 395 Hudson St., New York City, as Switchboard Service Supervisor. His mail should be addressed to 810 Derwin Road, Drexel Hill, Pa.

1920 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946 Al "Squirt" Lingley plans to be at the reunion in June. He reports about $1,100 raised for the Silver Anniversary Gift from 1920. Squirt, you will remember, was in charge of raising the fund.

Francis Friend (State Senator) will be with us in June. He has a daughter planning to start in Maine in 1946 and a second daughter scheduled for 1950.

State Commander of the American Legion of Maine is R. H. Howell of our class. A trip through Maine and Canada with the National Commander of the Legion may conflict with reunion, but we hope Dick can be with us for at least part of our celebration.

Miles Ham is now Treasurer of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company in Pittsburgh. He states he will be back even if he has to burn out a motor in his car as he did the last time he was attempting to make a reunion.

Harold Bagley of Presque Isle recently branched out by purchasing another farm. Harold is one of the Aroostook potato growers who are a credit to our class.

Minerva French Anderson, who is still teaching physics at Stevens High, Rumford, makes some of us feel our age. Her grandson was a year old the middle of March. Time marches on!

Betty Mills Towner says she and Pep will be with us at commencement. They are back in New York just now wildly hunting for an apartment.

Ed Hacker plans to get over from Portland for our reunion.

Stan Currier, in business now for himself in Lebanon, New Hampshire, states that "if we don't reunite now, we never will." He, his wife and daughter plan to combine reunion with a fishing trip.

Priscilla Elliott Knowlton thinks she can make it from Bangor.

Alonzo (Harry) Harriman who is an architect and engineer in Auburn was the first one to make a gift toward the class reunion fund. He suggests we ought to stay together at a hotel or fraternity, if possible.

Ken Farnsworth, M.D., is doing consulting surgery work only. He recently resigned from Harvard Medical where he taught surgical anatomy for twelve years. He is visiting surgeon at Boston City Hospital. He won't be with us in June. He is married and has four daughters.

Ralph Sinnett has been teaching chemistry at Ohio Wesleyan for seventeen years. He has two daughters, one through college and one starting this fall. He can't make reunion because of teaching duties but wants to be remembered to everyone.

1921 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

Harold E. Treworgy of Brunswick has been named one of the members of the new Board of Directors of the Brunswick Chamber of Commerce.

Officers of the Knox County General Hospital include H. Laton Jackson of Rockland who was recently elected vice president of that organization.

The certification of incorporation of the Springer Realty Co. of Bangor, recorded last month, carried the name of Michael Pilot, Bangor attorney, as president of the corporation.

Elmer A. LeBlanc is now in charge of the employment office and labor board for the U. S. Naval Air Station at Brunswick. He is living at 74 Pleasant St., Brunswick.

1922 Secretary: Estelle Nason, 34 Merrill Hall, Campus

The Cumberland County Teachers Association elected Carl T. Stevens of Portland as president of its convention February 1.

Foster B. Blake was released from the Army Signal Corps Dec. 24. He has returned to civilian occupation as a member of the Technical Staff of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, New York City. His residence address is—19 Alps Rd., Mountain View, N. J.

Your secretary, Estelle Nason, will attend a conference of Home Demonstration Leaders in New York City, March 19-20, and will be in Washington, D. C., April 20-22, as an Extension representative of the Organization and Policy Committee 1923 "Ted" Curtis, president of 1923, after consulting with other officers of the class wishes to announce that there will not be a formal reunion of the class this year, but there will be an informal reunion of those who live near the campus and any others who may return for Commencement. All efforts are to be focused upon the 25th anniversary reunion of the class in 1948.

1924 Secretary: Mrs. Clarence C. Little, Box 558, Bar Harbor, Me.

Your secretary is forced to the conclusion that you do not care to see yourself in print because, in spite of the fact that we have had no class news in the Maine Alumnus for two months, no one has been inspired to send anything in.

The Alumni Office sent the following items: Lt. Comdr. Merwyn Driscoll has been released from active duty with the Navy and is now located at 162 Palmer Ave., Palmer, N. Y.

Francis E. Handy, recently released from the Army, has returned to his civilian occupation as Communications Manager, American Radio Relay League. He lives at 35 Brookline Drive, West Hartford, Connecticut.

Lt. Col. Leslie E. Fayle is now on terminal leave. He was executive officer with the 203rd F. A. Group attached to the Third Army in the E.T.O. After sixteen months overseas he returned to this country Nov. 25th and is living at 205 Stillwater Ave., Old Town.

Howard C. Reiche was recently elected Secretary of the Portland Y.M.C.A. How about a newsy letter about yourself, Howard? Do you remember all we learned about the flora and fauna of Mt. Desert Island back in the summer of '23?

1926 Secretary: Mrs. Albert D. Nutting, 9 College Heights, Orono

Announcement was made in earlier issues of The Alumnus of plans for a 1926 class reunion this year. Class officers have reconsidered the situation and decided to defer holding a reunion until the next regularly scheduled reunion year. There will be no reunion of 1926 this year.

Guilbert R. Little, recently discharged Army Major, was elected president of the Clark Memorial Church Men's Club in Portland at the January meeting.

L. Addison Curren, who has been in the Navy Medical Corps, is now practicing again at 789 Park Avenue, Cranston, R. I.

Forest supervisor for the Green Mountain National Forest is Gerald S. Wheeler whose mail goes to U. S. Forest Service, Rutland, Vermont.

1927 Secretary: Edith O. Thaxter, 106 Fountain St., Bangor

As a "reporter" I seem to be a failure this month. No news to speak of, that is, not enough news items.

position of Town Manager in Fairfield, Maine. Danny was released from the Navy January 20th as a Lt Commander with twenty-two months of sea duty. At present Danny and his family are residing in Pittsfield but will move to Fairfield soon.

At the first post-war meeting of the Maine Investment Dealers Association held in Portland recently, Joseph D. Gay was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

1929 Secretary. Barbara Johnson, 32 Orland St., Portland 4, Me.

Emory T. Ridlon is now assistant manager of the Louisville Neoprene Works, E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., Louisville, Ky, having been transferred from Baton Rouge, La.

Major John B. Lynch, recently discharged from the army, after serving five years, has taken over the distribution of Acousticon Hearing Aids in Bangor. Before entering the army John was associated with his father C. J. Lynch in the Frank Grocery Company. He resides at State St., Bangor, with his wife and three children.

I'd love to have some personals. All I get is through the Alumni Office. Please let me know where you are and what you are doing.

1930 Secretary: Mrs. Pauline H. Leach, Homer Folks Hospital, Oneonta, N. Y.

his discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps January 1, has received the Commendation Ribbon from Admiral T. C. Kinkaid of the Navy "for devotion to duty and conduct" together with a note of "deep appreciation" from U. S. Marine Commandant A. A. Vandergrift. His service with the Marine Corps was for more than three years, as communications and radar officer through three Pacific campaigns. He lives with his wife and son, David, at 48 Sewall Street, Augusta.

An article in the Portland Press Herald of February 27 spoke of George Crimmins as "Brunswick's Busiest Gent." George is director of athletics at Brunswick High and at present is coach of basketball, coach of many championship swimming teams, and a teacher on regular schedule. He turns out standout teams in all. And baseball coming up.

Thelma Shea Lapworth is coach of girls' athletics at Hopedale, Mass., High School, along with her home duties and raising three children.

1931 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946
Secretary: Doris L. Gross, 15 Keene St., Stoneham 80, Mass.

Reunion sounds good already, even from this distance. Cliff Curtis and I have been conferring on ways and means, and what to do when; and we've started contacting class members in various localities. Vice President Jessie Fraser will be handling things in the Bangor-Orono area, with Lou Durgan Hammons as chief assistant. Sam Sezak is taking care of the financial end, we hope—at least, we asked him! June 15th is the date. Polish up that pre-war jalopy, pile in the family, and join us on campus for a real get-together!

Meanwhile, talk it up to everybody who comes within hearing distance. I was delighted to have a chance to mention reunion, among other things, to Ethel Saunders recently, when we found each other on the same train to Boston. Jackie is teaching English at Northampton High School and is living at 16 Massasoit Street. Her predecessor was Mary McGuire '28, recently a lieutenant in the WAVES; and Priscilla Noddin '33 is teaching with her and living at the same place.

Galen Veayo, principal of Edward Little High School in Auburn, has just been named acting superintendent of Auburn schools for the rest of this school year, after which he will resume his duties as principal.

I do have something besides school news—one item. Hubert Tracy has changed his address to Winterport, where he is employed by the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange.

If you are just out of the service, we would especially like a card giving your new address and the sort of work you are doing. And we'll be looking for you at reunion!

1932 M. G. Bean, 2 Madison St., Bangor

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph N. Prince of Castleton on Hudson, New York, announce the birth of their third child and second son, John Frank, at Albany, New York, on December 3, 1945. The paternal grandfather is Charles E. Prince, Maine '06, of Kittery, Maine.

Henry Favor, formerly with General Baking Co., New York, is now employed as Research Chemist with the R. T. Vanderbilt Company Laboratories, Norwalk, Conn. Henry is working on the development of emulsifiers for use in bakery products.

Win and Louise (Hill '33) Robbins are living at 36 Stony Brook Road, Cape Elizabeth, and Win is connected with the Robbins-White Structural Steel Erectors and Riggers.

Wilfred S. Davis, recently discharged from the Army, has returned to his former position with the U. S. Forest Service, Idaho Springs, Colorado.

Walter J. Anliker is employed in the Design Division of Engineering Department of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Co., Wilmington, Del.

Kay Trickey, formerly with the WACs and now discharged, is doing graduate work at the University. Her residence is 7 Blackstone St., Bangor.

Albert Gerry, discharged from the Army, is employed as a representative of the Gould Equipment Company of Portland, Maine. His residence is 92 Fling St., Brewer, Maine.

Ken Ludden has also returned from the Army to resume his work with the B. & A. R.R. in Bangor. His home address at present is 287 Ohio St., Bangor.

I have heard rumors that Bob Shean is living in Presque Isle and that he has opened an office in that town. If Bob reads this meagre column, perhaps he'll break down and give out with the news (officially, I mean).

Cleve Hooper, home from the seas and discharged from the Navy, is employed by the Socony Vacuum Company with offices at Lower Main St., Bangor. Cleve was with the Socony Company before the war. His home address is 14 Olive Heights in the same city.

1933 Secretary: Mrs. John R. Carnochan, 37 Falmouth St., Portland 3

Frank D. Lawler has been appointed superintendent of schools in Deep River, Conn.

Raymond F. Newell recently received his discharge from the Army. Ray performed specialized work in the chemical engineering unit as applied to biological warfare at Camp Detrick, Frederick, Maryland, a chemical warfare camp. He was cited for designing and installing apparatus specially adapted to the needs of the work and devising equipment to neutralize biological agents. He was assigned to the technical service unit at Camp Detrick because of his outstanding work and recently accepted a position with the government. He began his work March 1 with headquarters at Camp Detrick, Maryland.

It has been such a long time since I have heard from any of you—won't you drop me a line?

1935 Secretary: Agnes C. McGuire, 59 Western Ave., Biddeford

Another month, but news items are as scarce as apartments in New York City. Tom and I have answered more advertisements at 11 p.m. when the news reaches the Times Square stand, and we are still too late to have the place in question!

Otis Hanson is now employed as Radio Engineer in the Frequency Modulation Division of the Broadcast Branch of the Federal Communications Commission, Room 8435, New Post Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. His residence is 1322 V Street, S.E., Washington 20, D. C.

The Bell Laboratories Record for February reports a reorganization of the Engineering Department. The Broadcast Division is to be renamed the Broadcast Branch and will be headed by John A. Willoughby, who has been assistant chief engineer in charge of the Broadcast Division. Curtis B. Plummer will be Chief of the Television Division. John Hamilton is also in Washington, but I don't know what his official capacity is yet.

Edward Stetson, recently discharged from the army, is employed by the Veterans' Administration in the mail and records unit, Togus. He lives at 22 Fremont St., Gardiner, Maine.

The Eastern Trust and Banking Company has elected H. Parker Frost as a trustee.

1936 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946
Secretary: Mrs. Edwin Webster
Box 215, Hampden Highlands, Maine

We really have started making plans for the biggest and best reunion ever held at Maine! A couple of weeks ago Bill Mongovan, Joe Mullen, Reggie Naugler, "Puss" Brown Parker, Roblev Morrison, Eddie, and I got together and had a little reunion of our own to get things under way. Of course we hope you all can get back for the entire week end, but if you can't arrange that be sure to make the Saturday and Sunday activities, especially the outing on Sunday which will be held at the Penobscot Valley Country Club. We're going to have FUN!

I also picked up a little news at the committee meeting.

Bob Morrison and his wife have one boy, Robley III, aged 6, and a new baby girl, Jane, born March 13th. They are living in Houlton where Bob is employed by the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad.

Joe and Anna Mullen live here in Bangor, and Joe is an accountant with Prentiss and Carlisle.

Bill Mongovan and his wife, nee No-reen Vickers, also live in Bangor and have one boy, William, Jr., aged four. Bill is salesman for the Eastern Corp. in Bangor.

My most profuse apologies to Ruth Wight, Bill Wight's wife, for not getting this news in before. While in the process of moving I lost the announcement, Ruth, and have just found it again. The Wights have a son, Gregory Donald, born Sept. 27, 1945. Bill is a metallurgist with Pratt & Whitney in West Hartford. They also have a son, Stephen, aged 2. Their address is 195 Camp Ave., Newington 11, Conn.

Many thanks to Mrs. Edwin Anderson for sending me the announcement of the engagement of her daughter, Persis, to Henry Little. Miss Anderson is a Lt (j.g.) in the WAVES. She received her commission upon her graduation from Radcliffe College in 1943 and is now stationed at the Navy Air Control Center in San Diego. Henry is Secretary and Treasurer of the Southern California Alumni Association and is living in San Diego.

Almon Cooper is half owner of the Bald Mountain Printing Co., 414 Main St., Rockland.

Charles Dexter is employed as Mechanical Engineer for the Boston Elevated Railway, Power Department, Boston. His residence is 9 Sewall Ave., Brookline, Mass.

Margaretta Warren's address is now 19 East Benedict Ave., Havertown, Pa.

Chester Smith is now Director, Tri-Cooperative Economics Dept., 12 Chester Street, Somerville, Mass. Residence, 38 Allen Rd., Winchester, Mass.

Ernest Brown will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for representative to the Legislature in the June primaries. He seeks representation for the district comprising Wayne, Fayette, Readfield, and Mount Vernon. He served four years as first selectman of Wayne. Ernest is married and has three children.

John Sealy is a civilian once more and is employed by the Central Maine Power Company in Bucksport, Maine.

See you June 14, 15, 16.

1938 Secretary: Mrs. Wallace Gleason, 66 Parrott St., So. Portland 7, Maine

I'm ashamed to say that I have just come across a letter and a card which should have been in this column several months ago. However, they will be just as interesting now, I am sure. A letter from Nat Fellows says, "I am in command of a Patrol Craft serving as Air and Sea Reserve Craft among the South Pacific Islands. We have been at Guadalcanal, Florida Islands, Russell Islands, Espirito Santos, Fiji Islands and mostly about New Caledonia. We hope our next duty will be at Samoa. As soon as they can close the South Pacific area I will be on my way to the Atlantic to the Atlantic Reserve Fleet, I hope. I have my points in February so plan to be out by spring and attend class day in June." A card from Betty Lord says, "Just a line to tell you that on January 10 we had a private reunion here at our home. To be explicit, Buss Sherry (Ensign) who has just located an apartment in Arlington, Don Kelley, who just found an apartment in D. C., and Dick Bucklin, who's co-pilot with P.C.A. and also lives in Arlington with his wife Kay and small daughter (age 3), all came out for dinner, and what a grand time the boys had talking! Kay Bucklin came along to keep me from feeling so useless. The four boys hadn't been together since '38. Thanks you, Nat Fellows and Betty Lord, for your correspondence, which I misplaced during the moving process.

I have a letter here from Miriam Hilton Coffin written February 19, which mentions the same names Betty Lord reported on her card! Miriam says, "We've been to a dinner meeting of the U of M. Alumni of Greater Washington tonight. It might be of interest to the Alumnus that the class of '38 was reported by five members, the most from any single class. They were 'Buzz' Sherry, Don Kelley, Dwight Lord, John Coffin (my Mr.) and myself. 'Buzz' and Don are both still Navy officers. 'Buzz' has two sons, Don isn't married. Dwight works at Naval Ordnance Laboratory, lives in Berwyn, Maryland, and has two daughters. He was telling us about his nine chickens which produce four dozen eggs in a week! Among those present from adjacent classes were Barbara Lancaster '37, Harry Brown '37, Helen Bond McCutcheon '39, and Dick Bucklin '39. Mr. and Mrs. Crossland were down from Orono and it was good to hear all about everything going on up there. Heard from Norma Lueders Baker not long ago. She and Dick are in Winston-Salem, N. C., where he is stationed as an A.A.F. Major after returning last September from the C.B.I. Theatre. Their present address is 3320 Jersey Ave., Winston-Salem, N. C., but they expect to come to Washington within the next few months. We're still in Kensington and have no additions or special news since last writing (Allen will be four in April, Judy two in July)." Thanks so much for your very newsy letter, Miriam. Her address is Mrs. John Coffin, 3320 Glenway Drive, Kensington, Maryland.

On January 19 in the Old Town Methodist Church, Mabel Mayhew became the bride of Dean H. Couper of Littleton, Mass. They plan to make their home in Indianapolis, Ind. Mabel has been employed since her graduation as laboratory technician in the New England Deaconess Hospital in Boston. Mr. Couper was graduated from Littleton High School and Dartmouth College

Roger Clement is now territorial manager of six New Hampshire counties and Essex County in Massachusetts for General Mills, Inc., Larro Feeds Div., manufacturers of Larro Feeds. His residence is 316 Colonial Drive, Pannaway Manor, Portsmouth, N. H.

Ken Clark's Fort Fairfield High School basketball team made a fine record for the season, as a result of which they were chosen for the High School Tournament for eastern Maine which was held at the University.

Received a nice letter from Enola Trafford, wife of David Trafford, telling us that early in February Dave flew back to the States from Leyte, where he had been assistant maintenance officer of the 230th Ordnance Base Depot. At present they are making their home at 1013 No. College Ave., Bloomington, Indiana. Dave is doing research for his Ph.D. in English History at Indiana University. They have a daughter, Delia Van Trafford, born February 28th.

The following is last month's material which arrived at the office too late for publication—but it may still be news for some of you: M/Sgt. Arthur P. McDonnell of 54 Westgate Rd., Kenmore, N. Y., has re-enlisted in the Army. His plane was shot down in August, 1943, and he was a prisoner of war for twenty-one months.

Robert Harris is employed by the Eaton Drug Company in Salem, Mass., and living at 35 Loring Ave., Salem. He has a son, James Robert, born December 9, 1944.

Ralph Farris was discharged from the U. S. Army after three years' service in the intelligence corps and is at present employed in the legal department of the Employers Liability Insurance Company in Portland, Maine. Ralph has a two-year-old son, Ronald.

Kenneth Clark and Rachel Kent '40 are announcing the birth of a daughter, Belsey Jean, on January 11th.

Also received a note from Charlotte Currie Stafford telling of another class baby, Todd Bunker, who arrived January 6th. Charlotte has another son, Currie King, 2 years old. Her address is 4537 Genesee Ave., Dayton 6, Ohio.

Elizabeth Dixon and Donald Inskeep were married February 2 in Old Town. Elizabeth was recently discharged from the WACs after 19 months service overseas.

Charlotte King was married January 31 to Edward Pierce '38. They are living in Orrville, Ohio, where Ed's a forester with the wood preserving division of the Koppers Company.

Dorothy Silver and Capt. Jacob Serot '41 were married February 2 in Lewiston.

Had a letter from Jimmy Cahill with news of his family. You probably remember that he married Lillian Mitchell in '39 and they have a daughter, Beverly, 5, and a son, James, 3. Jim travels in Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont for Eversharp, Inc. Their home is at 294 Main St., Cumberland Mills.

We were home last week end to attend the wedding of my sister, Barbara '48, to George Lewis '48 of Bar Harbor. It turned out to be quite a Maine reunion. Those in the wedding party were Carol Durgin '34, Helen Lewis Trask '38, Allen Trask '40, Don Pratt '48, Tib '39, and Betty Kruse Parkman 40 and the Huffs.

Mrs. Vincent E. Poeppelmeier,
121 Main St., Houlton

Would like to begin this month's column with another reminder about reunion in June plus request for a few names from those who are planning definitely to attend—could you drop me a penny postcard here at 121 Main St., Houlton, and tell me so? It would help immeasurably in planning.

Fred E. Holt has been appointed County Farm Agent of the Maine Extension Service in Washington County—he succeeds Ed Potter who resigned to become manager of the Farmers' Exchange in Rockland.

Francis L. Cramer is now employed by the Megquier & Jones Co., 33 Pearl St., in Portland as Engineer in Structural Steel Fabrication.

don enlisted in the Naval Reserve in February, 1942, taking a course in radar at Harvard and later at M.I.T. He was for some time in Washington, D. C., and later went to Schenectady, N. Y., where he was naval inspector of radar equipment manufactured by the General Electric Co. Gordon is married to Helen Dworski of Schenectady and they have a daughter, Janice. His address is 525 Elm Grove Rd., Rochester 11, N. Y.

Jane Dyer was married on March 9th to Charles D. Ellsworth in Framingham. Charles is a native of Colorado and he and Jane are to live in Chicago. Betty Parkman was at the wedding and wrote that she'd met Priscilla Bickford Nelson there. Priscilla expects Harry home from Japan very shortly. Lib Mulholland was present, too. Lib is teaching in Orleans, Mass.

Doc Gerrish writes that he has accepted a position with the Southern California Tel. and Tel., so is adopting that state for his home; he also sent a few items for news but they'll have to wait for next month as I've misplaced the letter. His mail goes to 1800 No. Harvard Blvd., Hollywood 27, Calif.

All for now, see you next month.

1941 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

Mrs. Vale Marvin,
Winterport, Maine

Happy Spring, everyone.

We have three new citizens to report this month. Lt. and Mrs. Albert J. Judkins announce the birth of their second son, William, born Sept. 17. Lt. Judkins is now stationed at Panagarh, India, and expects to be heading for the States before March first. Congratulations to you both.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson (Margaret Jones) on the birth of their son, Paul Clough, on Feb. 24 in Ithaca, N. Y. Joseph is working on his Ph.D. at Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Frost have a new son, Peter Robinson, born on Feb. 16 in Washington, D. C., and we send our congratulations to them, too. Howard is out of the service and will be in New York where he is going to work with the Veterans' Administration.

It's practically a full time job trying to keep up with all the changes in address and all the new jobs. Here are just a few.

Cooper Milliken is now employed as a designer by Eaton W. Tarbell and Associates, Architects, 84 Harlow St., Bangor.

Foster Higgins is teaching at Freedom Academy, Freedom.

Carl R. Brown is now an Electrical Engineer at 125 Virginia Ave., Jersey City, N. J., and is living at 130 Midland Ave., River Edge, N. J.

Alma M. Fifield is associated with the J. E. Seagram Co., Louisville, Ky. Her residence is 1435 So. 3rd St., Louisville.

Cecil Woodbury, out of the army, is working in the research laboratory of the Sperry Gyroscope Co., Inc. His present address is 18 Ridge Rd., Farmingdale, L. I., N. Y.

Howard Ehrlenbach is employed by the H. F. Wescott Hardware Co., Ellsworth. Mr. and Mrs. Ehrlenbach are living at 487 Ohio St., Bangor.

Frank E. Anderson is District Merchandiser for Sparton Radios and Appliances in Maine, N. H., and Vermont. His residence, 95 Main St., Richmond, Maine.

Last month I appealed for more news of Kay Ward's forthcoming marriage. I received it by way of a wonderful picture and nice account in the Bangor Daily News. Kay was married on Feb. 16 to James de Barth Shorb (First Lt., U.S.A.). They plan to live in Boston temporarily and later will make their home in San Francisco. Lt. Shorb received his B.A. from the University of California and is now commanding officer of the A.S.T. Medical Unit. Prior to this he served as instructor in military science and tactics at the University of Maine.

Elizabeth Peaslee's engagement to Mr. Herbert L. Cain has been announced by her parents. Lib is now with the WAVES at Chelsea Naval Hospital. Mr. Cain was graduated from Northwestern at Memphis, Tenn., and then studied at Duke University. In 1940 he was named Seymour Fellow to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, Greece. He was instructor of classical languages and literature at Davis and Elkins College and now is with the State Department in Washington. They are planning their wedding for the early summer.

The engagement of Phyllis Knapp to Everett A. Kimball III has been announced by Phyllis' parents. After graduation Phyllis taught home economics in Norridgewock high school and during the war was an Army ordnance inspector in Boston. She is now acting dietitian at Norfolk House Center, a settlement house in Roxbury, Mass. Everett was recently returned from three and one-half years with the Armed Forces to his pre-war position with Socony Vacuum Oil Company, Brockton, Mass. No date has been set for their wedding.

A long newsy letter was received from Mrs. A. E. Hook ('36) telling us about her brother, Charles Hall. After graduation, Charles entered Yale Medical School and on Sept. 16, 1944, received his M.D., his commission as second lieutenant in the army, and was married to Miss Jane Dempsey of New Haven, Conn. He interned at Albany, N. Y., General Hospital and had training in neuro-psychiatry at Columbia Medical School. On January 16 he shipped out of San Francisco as ship surgeon on a transport carrying some 1140 Italian prisoners of war, supposedly unmanageable. At present Charles' address is: Lt. Charles A. Hall, 0-1705112, USAT Agwi Prince, c/o Port Director, New York Port of Embarkation, New York, N. Y.

October 18, 1944, Miss Peggy Morris of Bethesda, North Wales, became the bride of George Duplissa in Bangor, North Wales. They resided in Bangor until Sept., 1945, when George was transferred to London and from there to the States. Mrs. Duplissa came over on the Queen Mary with 2000 other G.I. wives, arriving in New York on Feb. 10. As far as I know, George is the first of our class to bring a bride from across the waters, and we wish them both all the happiness in the world.

1942 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946

Barbara Savage,
97 Broadway, Bangor

Frank Hanson and Bea Besse Hanson '41 are now living at 405 Ransom St., Chapel Hill, N. C., where Frank is working on his M.A. We received this news in a note from Frank along with his best regards to all.

From Harris McLean came the welcome letter with the following: "The McLeans returned to Bar Harbor this fall and at present I am employed as plant manager of the Hancock County Cold Storage Plant. I have two daughters, Marney age 2 years 9 months and Rosamond Joyce, age 6 days." (Congratulations!) "Have received long letters from both Miles Mank and John Robie. Miles is still in the army and he and Mickey Mank are stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky. His leg wounds are still bothering him and I guess they won't discharge him until he is o.k. I met a fellow the other day who was on Iwo Jima with John Friday, and received first hand particals surrounding the action that John was lost in. Also saw Fran Burger on Tremont St. in Boston. I'm really looking forward to the class reunion next June, and meeting everyone again." Thanks for the very swell letter, Harris, and for the testimonial re the reunion. We hope and plan that it will be a good one.

In Boston last week I dropped in to call on Elene and Woody Woodward at 66, The Fenway. Woody has just received his promotion to Captaincy in the Marine Corps Reserve (dating retroactively to some fourteen months ago) and is expecting his release from the service this summer. The Woodwards often see the Rhmelanders, who live at 86 Jersey St., Boston, and the Francis Andrews, who are at 1185 Boylston St., Boston, from "'42" and a considerable number of other alumni who are situated in Boston and around the Fenway. Enjoyed a very pleasant ride from Boston to Bangor with Elene and Woody and of course we had a lot of fun talking over news about people from Maine. Also called on Andy and "D.J." Andrews and had a nice visit. Andy expects to move from the Boston P.O.E. to the P.O.E. in New York City in April and is uncertain about the time he will be released. Andy is a captain now and "D.J.," who graduated from Wellesley, is certainly a charming "honorary" addition to the class.

Phil and Lillian Pierce now are in Washington, D. C., and Phil as you know is a captain in the regular Marine Corps. Phil, how about a letter one of these days with your address, etc.?

Maddie and Carlie Brackett, who have been at Vancouver Barracks, Washington, are now enroute to Newport, Maine, as Carlie has been released from the service. Franny and Dayson DeCourcy are now at Camp Roberts, Calif.

And from the Alumni Office the following items: Mrs. William C. Caldwell (Margo Phillips) is now living at Fairview Apts., 522 Dryden Rd., Ithaca, N. Y., while her husband is attending Cornell.

Nat Crowley's John Bapst High School team made an excellent record for the season. They won their way into the semi-finals of the Eastern Maine High School basketball tournament which was held at Maine in early March.

Ruth A. Towne, now Dr. Ruth T. Rankin, is now located at the New England Hospital for Women and Children, Boston. This is our first mention of Earl and

"Doc's" marriage, and we want to extend our very best wishes for happiness!

Geoffrey L. Desjardins is employed as shipfitter's apprentice at the Bath Iron Works and lives at 43 Chamberlain Ave., Brunswick, Maine.

Floyd L. Bull is Sales Representative for the American Cyanamid Co., of New York. His residence is Sea Road, Kennebunk.

Marion L. Hines is now employed as chemist with the Stanley Chemical Co., East Berlin, Conn.

And so we close for this month. Next month at the time for writing the column, I shall be pretty busy with plans for my wedding and so will ask the Alumni Office to edit the column. However, I'll be back again for the June issue.

1944 Class Reunion, June 15, 1946
Secretary: Esther Randall,
123 Longwood Ave.,
Brookline, Mass.

The mail produced two much appreciated letters. From Greenland comes word from Alice Heald who is based at an army hospital there. Mail goes to: Lt. Alice E. Heald, 1385th AAF Base Unit, Sqdn. C, APO #858, c/o Postmaster, N. Y.

Julio Barbero dashed off a note in between his third year exams at medical school. After sweating out that session "Doc" begins a stretch of obstetrical service and pediatric ward work. While we enjoy reunion in June, Julio will be "stuffing cod liver oil into those cute little kids—all of which will require a lot of nickel bribes." More power to you, Julio! Appointments can be made in advance by writing to: Pfc. Julio Barbero, Co. E, Bks. 6, 3336th SCU, ASTU, Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Early in March Elsie Clark and David Hall of Madison were married in North New Portland. Dave was discharged from the army in 1945 after serving three years with the 104th Inf. Div. and recently he has returned to the University of Maine to finish his college work.

Albert Wilson is attending the University of Texas. His address is—2101 Enfield Blvd., Austin, Texas

Pauline Pendleton is living at 1566 S.W. First St., Miami, Fla.

Last week end who should appear in Boston but Midi Wooster! Lt. Wooster has been signed, sealed and delivered as an army physical therapist at Lovell General Hospital, Ft. Devens. Midi's presence prompted a small reunion and consequently some news from Togg Thorpe and Mary Billings. Togg has recently been discharged from the WAVES and Mary is busy as a beaver feeding all of the hungry mouths at Wellesley College.

The '44'ers have two new heirs—both girls. Suzanne Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gerald Brown (Frances Sheehy) of 4770 Niagara Ave., San Diego 7, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Paul MacIntire became proud parents as of March 15th and congratulations go to 1032 Park Drive, Boston, Mass.

Will we see you at the Victory Reunion on the week end of June 15th? More details of our plans for the big event will reach you via the mail.

1945 Secretary: Constance L. Carter,
163 Greyrock Pl.,
Stamford, Conn.

Ens and Mrs. William Marble announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, born January 20th. Bill is stationed at Bremerton, Washington.

Herbert F. Gent, discharged from the Army in November, is now employed by the Beech-Nut Packing Co. He lives at 142 Trincroft St., Medford 55, Mass. Grace E. Wentworth was married to

Dr. Edward J. King of Iowa City, Iowa. The wedding ceremony, which took place in the Methodist Church, was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Wentworth. After March 4, 1946, Dr. and Mrs. King will be at home at 15 Howe St., New Haven, Conn., where he serves as instructor in chemistry at Yale University.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Craig of Greenville Junction are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Florence Elizabeth, to Gordon Sargent Stanley of Paterson, N. J. Mr. Stanley is employed by Wright Aeronautical Corporation as a research engineer.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Patricia Ellis, daughter of Mrs. William H. Parke of New York City, to Lt. Commr. George Alexander Sullivan, USN, son of Mrs. Alexander J. Sullivan of Cambridge, Mass. The ceremony took place at Christ Methodist Church, Park Ave. at 60th St., New York City, on November 22, 1945. The couple will live at 23 State Circle, Annapolis, Md., where Lt. Commr. Sullivan is stationed as instructor at the U. S. Naval Academy.

News comes from T/3 Albert R. Barmby who is at Wresbaden, Germany. Al is helping run equipment called German Carrier, a device with teletype communication. Al has vacationed, Army style, in the Granian Alps, France, and was once headed for Japan, but landed up in Germany where he is waiting "for the best, home." Al's address is T/3 Albert R. Barmby, 11129365, Co. B, 3187 Sig Sv. Bn., A.P.O. 633, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

While coming from Boston to Stamford a few weeks ago, I ran into Claire Ann Hamilton. She is teaching English and Social Studies at the public schools in New Canaan, Conn. Claire Ann's address is: 14 Millport Ave., New Canaan, Conn.

Congratulations are in line for Capt. Al Smaha who was married to 1st Lt. Jeanne M. Brooks at The Church of Our Blessed Mother in Blumenthal, Germany, on January 11, 1946.

A daughter, Marcy Louise, was born on December 17, 1945, to Sgt. and Mrs. Philip I. Stackpole of 31 Horne St., Dover, New Hampshire. Mrs. Stackpole is the former Louise Eastman, class of '45.

Thomas A. Plaisted is employed as Layout Draftsman in the Recordak Engr. Lab., at the Eastman Kodak Co., Rochester, N. Y. His residence is: 1050 East Ave., Rochester 7, N. Y.

Dot Ames is now in the occupational therapy department at the Maine General Hospital in Portland. Her address is 69 Thomas St., Portland, Maine.

Elinor Mundie is going to business school in St. Stephen, New Brunswick.

Marilyn A. Coy became the bride of Kenneth F. Zwicker on January 4, 1946. Marilyn is at present the dietitian at Estabrooke Hall.

Sylvia J. Steele was married to Lt. Allen L. Torrey on January 19, 1946. Lt. and Mrs. Torrey are on campus where he will complete his college course.

Engagements this month include that announced by Lt. Commr. and Mrs. L. N. McKenney of their daughter, Norma, to Lt. Robert E. Peterson, USNR, of Minot, North Dakota. At Present "Cam" is a claim adjuster for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. of Boston.

Mrs. William E. Carey announces the engagement of her daughter, Dorothy Eleanor, to Y 1/c Martin A. Walsh, USNR, of Boston. Dot now is teaching English at North Berwick High School.

Potatoes Grown on Farm of Leon Levasseur, Hamlin, Maine

As every Farmer, including the Victory Garden variety, knows, a Potato crop like M. Levasseur's didn't just happen. A bountiful Nature notwithstanding, it required a background of long years of courageous effort. His experience is typical of most Aroostook Farmers.

When War Food Administration asked for greatly increased Potato goals, Aroostook growers experienced in the fine points of raising bumper crops, went all out for the war. The 1943 crop reached the prodigious total of Seventy Million bushels!

Yet it is a fair statement to say that without the right kind of Commercial Fertilizer this outstanding accomplishment never would have been realized. Experienced Potato farmers know the importance of the right kind of Fertilizer and so hundreds of them annually USE SUMMERS.

For more than twenty years we have supplied a steadily increasing number with Quality Plant Food manufactured in our nearby Chemical and Fertilizer mixing factories. The proximity of these facilities has permitted us to study actual field results. So, as in the case of M. Levasseur—our present position didn't "just happen." Similarly we can point to long years of effort to produce in Maine factories, for Maine Farmers, the most plant food for his Maine dollar. His appreciation of these facts has permitted us to establish at Searsport, Maine, the only complete Chemical and Fertilizer Works within the State. In Peace or War, Maine Farmers now have a dependable source of Plant Food.
